Waverley Woollahra Art School is an independent non-profit community arts school, established in 1968. All our courses are provided by professional tutors in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. Our tutors are from various artistic backgrounds, who share their wide ranging skills in many mediums. They are passionate and committed to creative excellence under Waverley Woollahra Art School. Courses are all based on a practical hands-on approach and class sizes are kept to a maximum of 15 students. Whether you are an evolving artist or just want to discover your creative talents in an enjoyable and relaxed environment, Waverley Woollahra Art School provides a transformative learning experience. Courses are open to everyone and no previous experience or knowledge of a subject is required except where stated. The Art School is primarily self-funded and a not-for-profit organisation with support from Waverley and Woollahra Councils. We gratefully acknowledge the assistance of these organisations.
