

In 2018 a new sculpture class will be introduced to allow students to study classic sculpture techniques. Use your imagination with clay, stone, wire, wood or marble to create striking pieces of art.

SCULPTURE

Make your own pots, plates, mugs, vases and decorative items in our very popular and relaxed ceramics classes. Enrol early to secure your place.

CERAMICS & POTTERY

Explore your creativity with our mixed media classes using a variety of materials and mediums.

COURSES AVAILABLE IN 2018

THE JOAN PURVES ENCOURAGEMENT PRIZE

The Joan Purves Encouragement Prize of $2,500 will be awarded annually to an eligible enrolled student who demonstrates the highest level of artistic merit and potential, as well as commitment to furthering their art practice.

Introduced in 2017, the prize is named after the late Joan Purves, an active and valued member of our school community from its founding years, with a life-long love of painting.

Her work has been hung in major exhibitions since 1960 and is represented in private collections in the UK, USA and most states of Australia.

Joan Purves: Still Life with Flowers

Generously supported by The Joan Purves Art Trust

WAVERLEY WOOLLAHRA ART SCHOOL

Anna Kennard - Winner of the Acrylic Art Prize 2016

Waverley Woollahra Art School is an independent non-profit community arts school, established in 1968. All our courses are provided by professional tutors in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. Our tutors, who are from various artistic backgrounds, share their wide ranging skills in many mediums. They are passionate and committed to creative excellence under Waverley Woollahra Art School. Courses are all based on a practical hands-on approach and class sizes are kept to a maximum of 15 students. Whether you are an evolving artist or just want to discover your creative talents in an enjoyable and relaxed environment, Waverley Woollahra Art School provides a transformative learning experience. Courses are open to everyone and, except where stated, no previous experience or knowledge of a subject is required. The Art School, a non-profit organisation, is primarily self-funded but receives support from Waverley and Woollahra Councils. We gratefully acknowledge their assistance.
